

Online Leadership Program

Lead yourself and challenge your challenges

Do you feel like

- Growing your leadership?
- Taking a deep dive into your challenges?
- Getting a fresh perspective on leadership?
- Understanding human relational dynamics?
- Engaging in a journey of challenge, support and personal growth?

Online training in a group of 6-8 participants and with 2 facilitators, spread over 4 half days and an individual coaching.

The frame for this course is an innovative structure, where we co-create an optimal space for personal development.

We create a good balance of introducing tools and models from the concept of Authentic Leadership, and working in a relational field between participants and facilitators.

As a participant your willingness to contribute and engage is important. You are open to share own challenges, and to support and challenge the other participants in theirs.
